VIDEOGRAPHER

Description

Who We Are

At Seven Mountains Media, we don't just tell stories—we create them. From attention-grabbing commercials to compelling recruitment videos, viral social content, and professional training pieces, our Creative Services team crafts visual experiences that drive results. Now, we're looking for a Videographer who can bring that vision to life.

Job Description

We're looking for a creative, organized, and self-motivated Videographer to join our in-house content team. In this role, you'll shoot, edit, and deliver a wide range of video content for use across platforms including broadcast, digital, social media, OTT, and internal communications. This position is perfect for a visual storyteller who thrives in a fast-paced, collaborative environment.

Responsibilities

- Plan, shoot, and edit high-quality video content for various formats and platforms.
- Work closely with clients, account executives, and our creative team to bring concepts to life.
- Operate cameras, lighting, and audio equipment on-location or in studio settings.
- Edit videos using Adobe Creative Suite (Premiere Pro, After Effects, etc.) to deliver polished final products.
- Manage multiple projects simultaneously and meet tight deadlines.
- Maintain organization of footage, project files, and media storage.
- Stay up to date with video trends, techniques, and equipment.

Qualifications

• Required Skills

- Strong camera operation skills (DSLR, mirrorless, or cinema-style cameras).
- Proficiency in Adobe Premiere Pro and basic After Effects (motion graphics a plus).
